In re

LEO MINSKY, D.C.

ORDER

The New Jersey State Board of Medical Examiners has reviewed Criminal Accusation #A-1065-82 filed in Bergen County against Leo Minsky, D.C. This criminal accusation charges Leo Minsky, D.C. with conspiracy to murder Libby Minsky, his wife. Leo Minsky, D.C. has entered a plea of guilty to this criminal accusation. It appears that Leo Minsky, D.C. is suffering from a psychiatric impairment, namely recurrent severe depression characterized by intermittent loss of reality testing. Leo Minsky, D.C. is under the care of Stanley L. Portnow, M.D., a Diplomate of both the American Board of Forensic Psychiatry and American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. The treatment of Leo Minsky includes medication, which, according to Dr. Portnow, is Amitryptline 50mg. The chiropractic practice of Leo Minsky, D.C. is now operated by Michael Lehrer, D.C. who intends to acquire this practice. Leo Minsky, D.C. has refrained from the practice of chiropractic and intends to sell this chiropractic practice to Michael Lehrer, D.C. and will complete this transfer before April 1, 1983. Leo Minsky, D.C. may remain as the owner of the real property at which location the aforesaid practice is situated. In view of these factors and for good cause shown;

IT IS ON THIS 3rd day of May, 1983

O R D E R E D :

That the license # 1341 to practice chiropractic heretofore issued by this Board to Leo Minsky, D.C. is hereby voluntarily surrendered effective April 1, 1983; and it is further

O R D E R E D :

That the license # 1341 shall remain surrendered to the Board until the Board shall determine that Leo Minsky, D.C. possesses the psychiatric fitness required to engage in the practice of chiropractic; and it is further

O R D E R E D :

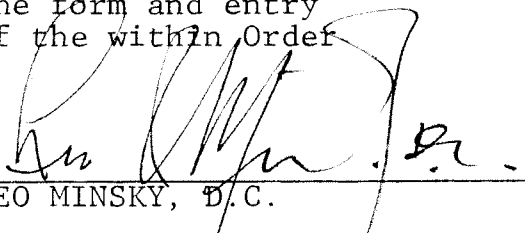

That the Board, as part of its consideration of an application for reinstatement of license # 1341 to Leo Minsky, D.C. , may receive and review the opinion of Stanley L. Portnow, M.D. regarding the psychiatric fitness of Leo Minsky, D.C. as it pertains to his ability to practice chiropractic; and the Board as part of its consideration of an application for reinstatement of license # 1341 reserves the right to appoint a psychiatrist to examine Leo Minsky,

D.C. and such psychiatrist shall report to the Board regarding the psychiatric fitness of Leo Minsky, D.C. to engage in the practice of chiropractic. The cost of any such Board appointed psychiatric examination shall be borne by Leo Minsky.
